

THE KNOLL
1965

PRESIDENT O'LEARY

"Knowledge and wisdom, far from being one,
Have oft times no connexion - knowledge dwells
In heads replete with thoughts of other men;
Wisdom, in minds attentive to their own.
Knowledge is proud that he has learned so much;
Wisdom is humble that he knows no more.
Books are not seldom talismans and spells,
By which the magic art of shrewder wits
Holds the unthinking multitude enchained".

Commence to strive to transmit knowledge, and to grow in wisdom as you do.

Frank D. O'Leary

THE EDITORS
DEDICATE THE 1965 KNOLL
TO
DR. ETHEL KAMIEN

It is with great pride that the Senior Class dedicates the 1965 Knoll to Dr. Ethel Kamien. During the past four years she has proven herself to be a loyal friend as well as advisor to our class. At this time we would like to extend to Dr. Kamien our heartfelt thanks and best wishes for future successes.

I extend my best wishes for success and happiness to all of the Class of 1965 at this important time of your graduation. I hope that continued good fortune and health will be your lot in your chosen profession.

Create your own "Great Society" by relating well to your fellow man. As an educated person, use skill and tact in your inter-personal relations. Take time to understand. Practice empathy. Be your best. Do your best. Make the world in which you choose to work a better place because you are there.

"Youth is called not to pleasure but to service." The challenges are great but so are the rewards. We are sure that the class of '65 will respond to the call and perform nobly.

Assuming philosophy to be the "pursuit of wisdom," the "pursuit of truth," and education to be society's instrument for bringing into being a higher and better expression of itself, it is clear that education's main responsibility is the improvement of men. If you now seek to improve the minds of others, you must always be open to change and new values. The world and all its contents are not in a state of being, but always in the process of becoming. The world we live in needs supremely healthy, fully functioning people as never before and it is the task of education to produce them. As you seek to become, remember,

"He who would kindle a flame in another, must himself glow."

ELIZABETH A. NEILSON
Professor of Education
Chairman, Department of Health and Physical Education

ETHEL KAMIEN
Assoc. Professor, Biological Science
A.B., Brooklyn College
M.S., Ph.D.
University of Wisconsin

Four years ago we started our careers at Lowell State College together, you as the entering Freshmen, Class of '65, and I as a new member of the Faculty, elected to be your Class Advisor. It has been with a special interest and the unique satisfaction that perhaps only teachers can experience that I have watched you, during these four years, grow in maturity, increase your areas of knowledge and competence, and become ready to assume greatly increased responsibilities.

I want to extend to you all, most sincerely, my best wishes for success and happiness in the future and add this counsel:

"Let the truth and right by which you are apparently the loser be preferable to you to the falsehood and wrong by which you are apparently the gainer."

The Philosophy of Maimonides, Ethical Will, Responsa II, 38c.

MARGUERITE L. GOURVILLE
Professor, Chairman of Professional Education
Director, Student Teaching and Placement
B.S. Ed., Marywood College
A.M., Boston University

I am sure you will have good luck and be happy in the years to come. Your gaiety and sense of humor have made you interesting people to teach. Bring this spirit with you into the classrooms of tomorrow.

WILLIAM C. BURTO
Professor, Chairman of English Education
 A.B., Colgate University
 A.M., Ph.D., Harvard University

Fortunately, or unfortunately, you can't go home again. But you can find a home; make it a good one.

In a rapidly changing world, you have the responsibility of perpetuating the values of the past while evaluating the present and preparing young people for an uncertain future. This is a serious and difficult task, but you do not face it alone. Your predecessors have built a firm foundation; now you have the opportunity to contribute your knowledge and skills. We all wish you the best of luck.

Somewhere it is always warm. May the warm bright light of the New Day always brighten your heart.

And he made answer: "Follow but thy star;
 Thou canst not fail to win the glorious haven, If in glad life my judgment did not err."

Is the cafeteria really that crowded?

Us Tareyton smokers would rather fight . . .

What was in his coffee?

You can't have it and that's final!

Mr. Richard Derry

All in a days work.

To think at one time I was an 801b. weakling.

Dr. I'd rather do it myself.

Got it!!!

CANDIDS

MISS KNOLL 1965

Miss Knoll is the lovely Senior,
MISS ANN KEARNEY

Hmm, I think it's peanut butter.

I nose what I'm talking about.

At last! Investiture.

Dr. Gilday scores a hit.

I invest you . . .

Senior Class Officers.

You will take that back, won't you?

L. S. Cers meet a Governor.

Visual aides can make a lesson.

Lowell State trio.

Recreation at L.S.C.

Their songs were blowin' in the wind.

A funny thing happened to me on the way . . .

Who's her date?

Mr. Bregor

Then came the Civil War

So much confusion!

All right,
it could be . . .

Ya really think so, huh?

Practice makes perfect

Happiness is having the lounge to yourself

Our light will glow in the dark

It's waving at me!

I get so confused . . .

Friends

What do you suppose they mean by that?

(Sing) This is the way we move our chairs . . .

I happen to like lemon sandwiches . . .

No. I don't miss Lowell High . . .

Is that what he REALLY means??

"Carry me back to ol' Virginie . . ."

Here comes a car now!

Beat you to "Jim"

What's she doing here?

Windex, anyone?

Algae or fungi??

Quick, quick, before it turns into a pumpkin!

THE CAFE

If we don't say anything, it might go away.

A penny for your thoughts . . .

I wonder who won this round of the game??

That's what I like about this class.

Who said this was a "fun" course???

Will we ever make this column?

CHRISTMAS PARTY

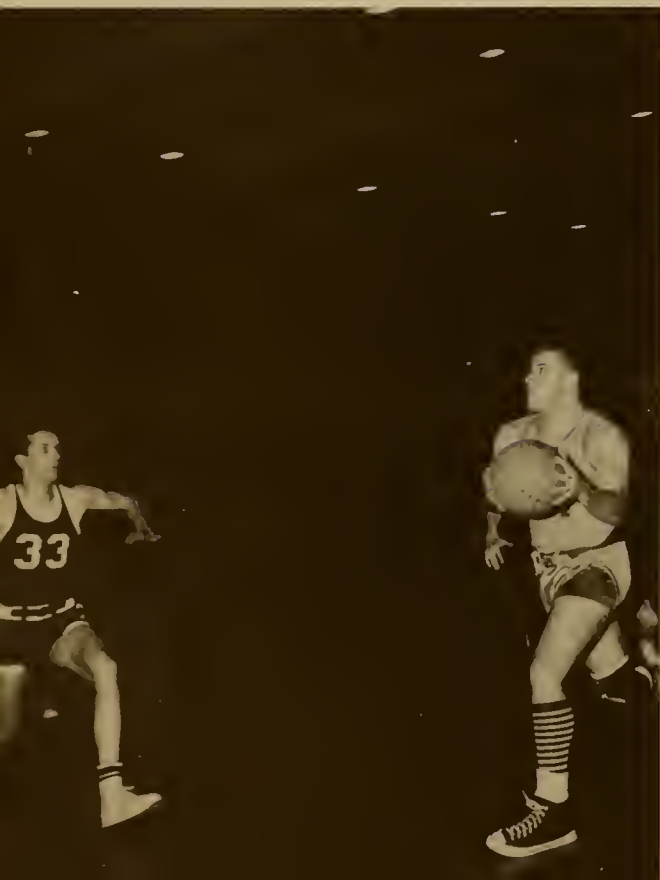

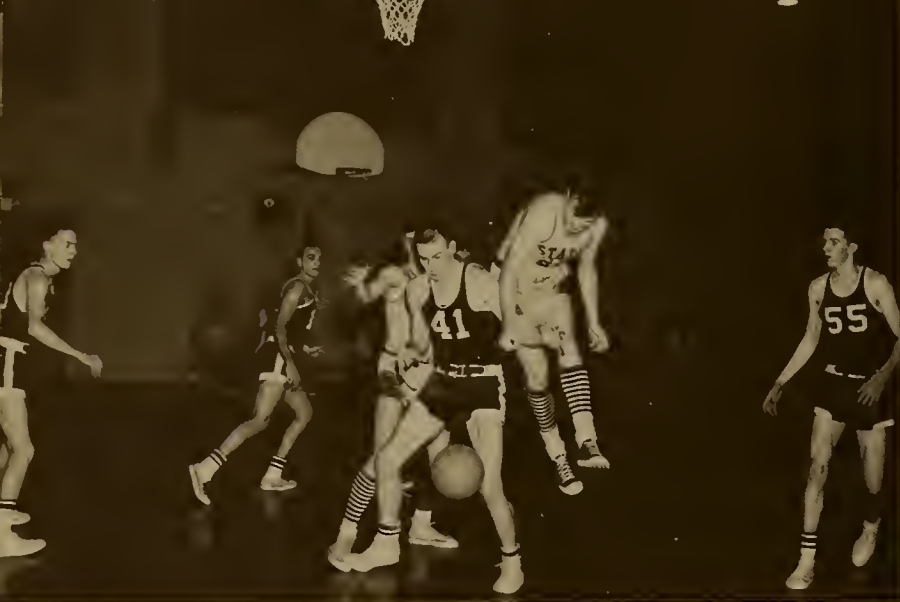

He writes the nicest things.

They'll never find us here.

Well, I haven't seen the editor either.

What a man!

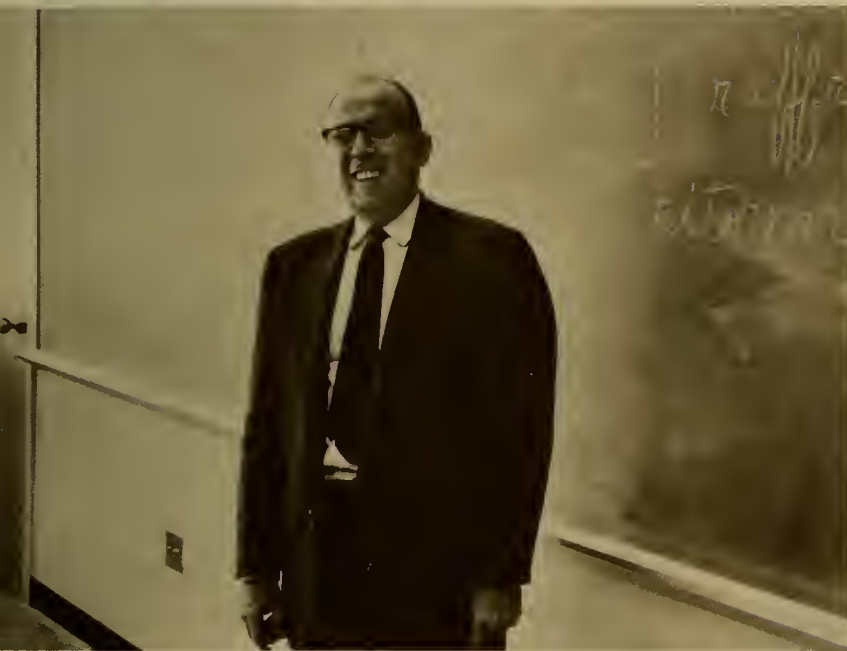

I see the candid camera.

Relax, it's only practice.

Bon jour.

Mr. Torrielli

Come to papa.

Homework?

. . . and she told him . . .

Fresh Frosh.

Well that's not the way I heard it.

Ya, we really won.

L.S.C. supporters

Well at least our fingers are different.

Lounging in the lounge.

Only five more payments and I can keep it.

The crowds are overwhelming.

Lowell State has growing pains.

The party is at her house.

WRO AT PLAY

That's right, L.S.C. won.

It can't be!

Ha! Ha! Ha! Let's go to the Cinamon!

The Iona Fellowship is a student organization of Lowell State College, Lowell Technological Institute, and Lowell General School of Nursing united in a common desire to realize a full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God. Iona is a Scottish word implying that the organization is non-denominational. Therefore, students of all races and creeds can unite in their common loyalty to God. The purpose of the organization is to help every student know, love, and serve God as revealed through His Son, Jesus Christ. Each member seeks to understand the will of God through worship, study, and action, and strives to realize it both in his personal life and by working toward a better society.

The Men's Athletic Association is an organization composed entirely of the male students of the college. Its ultimate goal is to give the men a chance to develop physically as well as mentally. Every male student in the college is given the opportunity to participate in a well-rounded sports program on the collegiate level. The program includes handball, basketball, volleyball, weight lifting and golf.

On the social side of the program the activities include a dance, a Variety Show, the annual banquet, and Sports Night, when the Campus Queen is selected.

The aim of the Drama Club is to give its members a knowledge of all areas of the theater. Meetings include lectures on make-up, costuming, stagecraft, script reading, theatrical business management and the history of the theater by people experienced in theater work.

The club presents one major production each year. In addition, shorter works are presented throughout the academic term. The Drama Club also works with other college organizations in the production of musical and variety productions.

The Music Educator's National Conference, Student Chapter 201, was established by the late Dr. Cyrus D. Thompson, its first faculty sponsor. It is actively affiliated with the Massachusetts Music Educators' Association and the national chapter of the M.E.N.C., and has grown steadily as an enthusiastic and hard-working student organization.

The purpose of the M.E.N.C. is to provide students with educational, professional, and social experience that will aid them in their chosen careers.

The Jazz Society functions in order to promote good music in all idioms, to further music self-expression and to present jazz, concert style, for the enjoyment and appreciation of members and others. Members are divided into two groups: performing members who contribute musically and associate members who contribute time and effort and otherwise support the society. The Jazz Society presents two concerts each year. Featured at these concerts are a big band and a number of small groups. These concerts provide an excellent medium for the students to create their own jazz compositions and to have them played at a public concert.

SCIENCE CLUB

A Science Club was founded at Lowell State during the 1964-1965 college year under the guidance of Miss Nancy Murello. The purpose of this organization is to provide its members with current scientific information and experiences. The Club holds regular meetings and plans field trips to places of scientific interest.
